

✚ Who says going to a spa has to be a solitary pursuit? Certainly not Spring, a spa in Auckland's seaside suburb of St Heliers, where sociability is part of the appeal. It's designed for groups of friends to enjoy some quality catch-up time while indulging in luxurious treatments from an extensive selection. The decor is bright and modern; the menu focuses on traditional techniques. springspa.com

HOT